Our annual meeting was held at the old cemetery building on Fourth Avenue in Atlanta. It was well attended by family and friends of East View. We endured the heat with open windows and fans, and acting President Snipes adjourned the meeting promptly a few minutes before twelve p.m.

Our good neighbors living around the cemetery have been diligent to report any unusual or destructive behavior in the cemetery, which is greatly appreciated as most of the volunteers live many miles from the cemetery. We can happily report that we have had very few instances of vandalism. Much thanks to a watchful neighborhood association. The East Lake Neighbors Community Association is a good friend to East View Cemetery.

The extreme heat of July, August, and September has decreased our usual number of clean-up volunteers. We hope to get back to our normal crew of helpers in the month of October; and hopefully the Boy Scouts will again come to our rescue in November, with raking and blowing. Our next work/visitation day will be Saturday, October 8th from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Please bring your favorite tools, also some paper leaf bags would be appreciated. Cold water and some snacks will be on hand, but bringing a snack to share would be appreciated.

We now have burial information on our website, such as fees and requirements. Please visit www.eastviewcemetery.org for more information. Funeral directors should be asked to consult this website when making arrangements.

As always, donations run low this time of year. We ask that you remember to send your donations for the upkeep of the cemetery. East View is not a perpetual care cemetery, and relies solely on the donations of family members in order for it not to fall into an uncared-for state. We take pride in being a beautiful oasis in the heart of the city, where family can come and remember loved ones. Thank you to all the donors.
